Shalom laYehudim, Shalom laBnai Noach, Shalom laGoyim. It's the evening of the 6th day, tes beIyar, Parashas BeHar, tav-shin-ayin-dales, the evening of the 5th day, Thursday, 8 May, 2014, webcasting from the cauldron of world history.

It is no quirk of history that in the United Nations Organization all 193 member-states are eligible to sit on the Security Council -- except for one.

It is no coincidence that this state is located at the nexus of Africa, Asia and Europe, the crossroads of the world. That's a good place for a special, set aside, holy land.

And as Adam and Eve, being the first creatures given free will made the wrong choice the first time, ever since man has been a rebel and one way is to sneer and abuse and even murder G-d's chosen, singled-out people whose existence is proof of His existence.

How ironic that much of humankind hates the Jews for claiming to be a unique people, then at the United Nations the nations unite around giving Israel a singular fate.

The Gentile Prophet Balaam said "This will be a people that dwells alone"-- the Gentiles, by the way, means the "peoples" of the world, and they hate the Jews for this claim and then proceed to treat us in such a way as to prove the claim. Apart from the rejection of the Jews and the idea of a Chosen People, the Gentiles do just that: they choose us for singular treatment.

And not only the peoples of the world...the "peoples" in Hebrew is goyim -- and you know "Gentiles" is almost a perfect translation of goyim: both mean quite simply peoples/nations -- all the world's peoples except your own.

Every people has the concept of the goy. Take the Norwegians, those hysterical anti-Jews. Like every nation on earth with a legal system and citizenship, they make a distinction between Norwegians and everybody else on the planet; those without citizenship who don't belong to their people. And the people who do belong get special treatment as citizens -- as opposed to all the other nations in the world who are experienced by Norwegians as foreigners.

And it is not only anti-Jew Gentiles in rebellion; they are helped by antiJew Jews. Last webcast the focus was on the lengthy interview on Friday done by Nahum Barnea with some anonymous peace processors in which Israel was smeared with the guilt for the failure of the peace process lead by His Excellency St. John the Baal Kerry, their boss.

Well, it later turned out that this was no posse of some anonymous peace processors in the plural who spoke so haughtily against Israel. It really was just the No. 1 Peace Processor himself, Dr. Indyk, the famous doctor of peace-processing who has never once succeeded in making peace.

Indeed, there was one crack in the original interview I thought particularly disgusting. It sounded like Dr. Martin and it was Dr. Martin. I've often referenced his infamous morning interview here on Israeli radio: "If you want our support, you must do as you are told" and this one was "You Jews are supposed to be smart."

I don't envy Prime Minister Netanyahu having to deal with this guy and his boss Obama. I salute Bibi for being the captain of the ship who is steering us through if not shark-infested waters, than antiJew Jew-infested waters teeming with lowlife like this man.

And he is not alone. You all know that for my money the Oslo Abomination was symbolized by that infamous 1998 photograph of Shimon Peres kissing Yasir Arafat on the cheek. Well, two nights ago, ironically following Israeli Independence Day, Herzlandia's buffoon of a president St. Simon of Oslo was on national television Channel 2 complaining that three years ago Prime Minister Netanyahu prevented him from meeting with Abbas and did so just as they were about to reach an agreement. He also said Abbas was willing to recognize Israel as the Jewish state in return for the establishment of a Balestinian state.

Here we have the president of the State of Israel blaming the absence of peace on his own prime minister and not on the Holocaust-denying mass murderer of Jews. Peres called Abbas in the interview "man of character" and a "fighter against terrorism" and a man who is "courageous and talks of peace."

Yes, and I have a bridge in Brooklyn I would like try to sell to Shimon Peres. Does he really see in this antisemitic terrorist a man pf character? He was Arafat's right-hand man; Arafat who proved himself to be a treacherous poisonous snake of a man, Does Shimon Peres really think Abbas is courageous? In fact, like Arafat, he never ever physically risked himself for the Ancient Balestinian cause. And for that matter neither did Shimon Peres for the Zionist cause.

Here is the president of the state pointing the finger of blame at his own people's democratically-elected leader. Oh boy. This guy Peres hasn't got a drop of class, of nobility, of integrity in him. It is yet another act in a lifetime of such behaviors. This is why the late Rabin called him a "tireless underminer." In every administration Peres has had a secondary role and was forever opposing the prime minister's policy and working behind the scenes to see it fail because Shimon knew better.

Peres said that the agreement he was on the verge of concluding three years ago with Abu Mazen was based on the Arab League Initiative.

And you may remember that 2002 media event in which a central player, really the messenger boy for the Saudis, whose dozen-plus nationals the year before had destroyed the World Trade Center...their flunky was none other than LTF, Little Tommy Friedman who interviewed the king of Saudi Arabia and left the country with the Arab Initiative which seemed to some to be the final acceptance of Israel by the home-country of Islam.

Only on inspection it was the same-old same-old: demands for handing back all the land the Arabs in a humiliating defeat had lost to the hated Jews; and of course the so-called right of return for the Ancient Ones was to be part of it too.

Yet in the ever-bubbling cauldron of the Middle East forever throwing up new narratives, this one entered history as evidence of the Arabs finally wanting peace with Israel – which of course Israel rejected.

But in the world according to LTF and his soul-brother Martin Indyk, the absence of a peace deal here is the Jews' fault. Sooner or later, Indyk said, the Ancient Ones will have their state, meaning, Judea and Samaria and they will return to their rightful owners, the Neo-Philistines.

As the Israelites fought over this Land for over four centuries against the Philistines and their cousins the Canaanites, so in our time the born-again Jewish commonwealth has been fighting for the last generation of 40 Biblical years the Balestinians who claim to be the direct descendants of both Philistines and Canaanites. And while there is not a scintilla of tangential evidence to support that claim, it is most certainly true from a spiritual point of view. The Arabs have picked up the identity of those two ancient communities and while there is no historical connection, they most certainly are their spiritual offspring.

Both Canaanites and Philistines seemed to have been as grotesque a society as Homo sapiens ever threw up, like the Aztecs at their worst. That religion required not the sacrifice of animals as in the Jewish Temple, some of whose meat was later used for food, but the sacrifice of men who would be forcibly stretched out on an altar and have their chests sliced open by the Aztec priests who then cut out and ate the still beating heart.

The Canaanites were also into every sexual perversion imaginable; like the men of Sodom and Gomorrah, those communities of hedonists and their perversion of procreation into an exclusively physical thrill. The Canaanites and Philistines engaged in behaviors G-d did not want to see continue in His Holy Land, and the Book of Judges covers this period of 440 years during which the Israelites and the Canaanites and the Philistines contended for this land.

And may it not take that long for our people in this generation to emerge victorious.

So as I say, you don't have to be one of the non-Jewish nations a.k.a. the Gentiles, from the Latin and Italian words for of nation or people or in Spanish its gente...you don't have to be one of the Gentiles to be an anti-Jew. At their most shameless extreme, Jews can end up like Mordechai Vanunu who spilled state secrets and ultimately converted to Christianity.

Or you can be like Uncle Shimon, for whom the font of wisdom in the matter of Judea and Samaria is the U. S. State Department, the New York Times, Le Monde, the Guardian. If Uncle Shimon had his way, he would drive all of us Jews from Judea and Samaria because that is what Dr. Abbas wants, and we heard on Tuesday night from none other than our president who told us that Abbas is "a man of character who talks of peace."

He "talks of peace." And so did Adolf Hitler to Neville Chamberlain at Munich. I sometimes wonder if Shimon Peres was in his youth working on a collective farm when accidentally kicked in the head by a mule or something. Is there no room for deceit in his universe among our murderers like Arafat and Abbas? No resorting to lying by them?

And then there is another variety of Jewish anti-Jew behavior which we saw yesterday when Peres's protégée, Ministress of Justice and Peace Maker extraordinaire Tsipora Livni who chaired an emergency meeting at her ministry, joined by the Public Security Minister, basically chief of the national police, Yitzhak Aharonovitch on her left side and on her right Attorney-General Yehuda Weinstein. The emergency meeting was called and dutifully covered by the media to petition the Cabinet to declare these price-tag attacks "terrorism."

And all yours truly could do was sigh in disgust, for two reasons. It is a perversion of language to call these graffiti raids "terrorism" when no one is terrorized by them; no one is shocked with adrenalin in a sudden great fear. That's terror. This is not terror. It results in the next morning some Arabs sneering in anger perhaps but no one is terrorized; no one is terrified; there is no fright.

What this crusade by these Leftist fools is fueled by is their need to advertise to the world, as Livni has already said, that these vandals do not represent her Israel. She has already written them out of the nation.

She and the others likewise foolishly call their antics "hate crimes" when they cannot be confused with what the term "hate crimes" usually connotes. There is nothing wrong with Jews hating Arabs. It is normal, it is justified, it can be beneficial.

What also ticks yours truly off is that another facet of this crusade is smearing all of us settlers with the behavior of these juvenile people, and I say that because one of the results of this public crusade will be to increase the number of such raids, and likewise the number of retaliatory Arab strikes, rather than reduce them.

In the lunatic 1960s and 70s it became the fashion in New York City among teenage boys with an artistic bent to cover the subway cars with graffiti until it became an impossible situation, and so the policy was adopted by the Transit Authority that at the end of a run, no car with fresh graffiti on it would go out until the graffiti was cleaned off. And over time the graffiti boys who thrilled to see their artistry roaring by learned that it would not last the day. And so over time, the boys got tired and the phenomenon ended.

What Tsipi and Weinstein are doing is pouring oil on the fire rather than choking off the oxygen that fuels these immature people. Every news report of their antics only pleases them. Military censorship is alive and well in Israel and it would not be difficult to ask the media not to report these raids. Period.

But Tsipi and Yehuda have an agenda. She told the media these price-tag attacks “harm Israel internally and abroad.”

Oh yes, abroad. What will the Gentiles think? What will Thomas L. Friedman think? The editors of the New York Times? This crusade is part of Tsipi’s and Yehuda’s war against us settlers.

Last webcast the figure of 80,000 fresh Jewish refugees was thrown out as part of the peace plan according to that Benedict Arnold of the Jewish people Martin Indyk; and if memory serves, Livni herself once used the number of 60,000. In her peace plan only 60,000 Jews would have their lives wrecked. They will be driven from their homes and the communities they built.

I suppose it is one of the identifying emblems of Homo sapiens to be a rebel against the will of G-d and that has expressed itself in every generation by hating His Chosen People and their ambition to live by His words in His Holy Land.

We settlers make Jewish antiJews like Livni and Weinstein uncomfortable.

Well, now we are in the middle of this latest atrocity in Nigeria where there is a war going on if not in conventional terms between uniformed armies on a battlefield. It is the long-running, over centuries really, war of Islam against non-Muslims.

On 15 April the Boko Harum cultists, which name means in effect, “war against Western civilization in the name of Islam,” kidnapped over 300 young women aiming to be become teachers and nurses, doctors and lawyers. They kidnapped them and threatened them with being sold as slave-concubines to Believers in the One True Faith.

I think it has been awhile since Pres. Bush, Jr., following 9-11, said Islam was a religion of peace, and I would like to believe that that ecumenical cliché is no longer in use. I mean, who can still believe that Islam is a religion of peace?

It is true that of the 1 billion-plus Muslims on the planet, most are not terrorists or kidnapers. But most of them in Egypt, I believe, see to it that their females are mutilated as part of their sexual mores and behaviors.

Muslims in their majority may not be terrorists but in their majority swear by the Qur’an which does license Believers to kidnap and murder and forcibly convert infidels.

This week’s horror story about this mass kidnapping in Nigeria brought to mind a book I reviewed in the early 1990s by one Murray Gordon, a career State Department functionary who worked at the U.S. Mission to the UN, and it was called Slavery in the Arab World. Specifically, he dealt with slavery in Africa not on in its western bulge -- the source of the Negro slaves in the Western Hemisphere -- but in Central and East Africa where the slave traders were not white European Christians but brown Arab Muslims who had been capturing blacks and enslaving them from time immemorial. The slave trade to the New World lasted about 400 years, versus the Arab raids into central Africa which lasted more than 1,000 years and targeted blacks for a different kind of slavery: not to make them field hands on plantations but domestic servants and employed in a rich man's harem as eunuchs. The Arabs based on the Barbary Shore would strike south and cross the Sahara Desert into the Chad region and corral as many boys as they could and castrate them on the spot. Out of, say, a group of 200, maybe 20 would survive the field surgery and those would be taken back to be slaves to rich men's wives.

And it was all kosher in Sharia law with roots in verses in the Qur'an that I just happened upon today in doing some research for myself.

One can only hope or pray for a successful rescue of these hundreds of girls, but no matter the outcome, let this horror be another lesson for the West which finally helps the West to vanquish the politically correct nonsense of Islam as not being represented by such barbarism. Of course it represents Islam in a way the Price Tag vandals do not represent the Jewish people.

Islam is a universe of endless fighting, brutality, cruelty, despotism, corruption, perversion, slavery, the antithesis of a free society of free men and women. On the contrary, there are numerous verses in the Qur'an waving the banner of submission as the height of piety. Islam means submission. The goal of Islamic spirituality is the obliteration of the individual, his will, a rejection of the gift of freedom from the Creator. Islam is a world where liberty and justice and freedom are not the highest of aspirations, but submission and slavery are.

Then again, Islam is the purloined religion of Hamites; Ham whose son Canaan was condemned to be the father of "slaves of slaves."
