Shalom laYehudim, Shalom laBnai Noach, Shalom laGoyim. It's the evening of the 4th day, gimmel beIyar, tav-shin-ayin-beh, Parashas Acharei Mos-Kedoshim, the evening of the 3rd day, Tuesday, 21 April 2015, webcasting from Israel on Memorial Day that used to refer just to soldiers who fell in battle but now also remembers the thousands of ordinary Jews murdered by the sons of Ishmael in terrorist atrocities.

Last week I began the webcast without the music of J.S. Bach that I so love in honor of the six million Jews murdered last century. And now again we begin with silence to honor the Israeli soldiers and defenseless civilian Jews bushwhacked to death in surprise attacks by these barbaric Arabs.

You saw this week more beheadings of, what, 30 Ethiopian Christians in Libya; then there were the 12 Christians thrown overboard into the Mediterranean. Our enemies are satanic monsters of cruelty -- but unlike their Christian victims whom everyone sees as true innocents murdered for their religious faith, when the Ishmaelites slaughter us, they have "good" reason.

For sure, no one in civilization today would bless the murders of those four Jews doing some last minute shopping for the Holy Sabbath in that Parisian deli, Hyper Cacher, but well, you know, Muslims like their killers have been and continue to be victimized by the Jews with their Zionism. You know.

Wasn't this the official attitude of the government of France that tried to separate one massacre from the other; to highlight the difference between the Charlie Hebdo atrocity and the similar bloodbath in the Hyper Cacher? Bibi would not stand for that though, G-d bless him.

Our enemies are barbarians, generally speaking. Is every Arab a terrorist murderer? Of course not. Which does not cancel the truth that in general they are a nation of terrorists. There are a few active ones percentagewise but then a majority of the people supports them. By their tolerance of the few monsters among them, they participate in their evil.

That is the meaning of the constant honoring by the PLO/PA, like every month or so, some PLO murderer is honored by naming a school or playground after him. It is this constant waving in our faces in Israel of their culture that makes heroes of mass murderers of defenseless people.

The official figure for the fallen in Israel's Zionist period is some 23,000-plus soldiers. But also on record are the more than 4,000 civilians slaughtered in Arab terrorist attacks, not to mention the thousands of other who survived but were wounded and crippled and sometimes for life because our neighbors are, as a rule, in general, sub-civilized savages.

But don't tell that to their supporters around the world. Take, for example, the news item today of Jimmy Carter returning to Israel and to Gaza who will not be received by President Rivlin. The Foreign Ministry advised the president not to do that, and he is complying. The foreign ministry knows Carter for the antisemite that he is, which is apparent from his statements about our situation and our enemies. In true antisemitic style, he tells one lie and distortion of truth after another.

Even his former Jewboy of many years' standing, Dr. Kenneth W. Stein, PhD, had to abandon him when Carter published his second book on Israel with "apartheid" in the title. Apartheid, of course, has become the substitute code word for greedy Jews, cliquish and clannish Jews, racist Jews who in their racism persecute the real, authentic, ancient landlords of Balestine -- a land these savages cannot even pronounce correctly, it is a geography so alien to them.

There is nothing about Falastin in the Qur'an written in the seventh century. Neither ever was there after then, for more than a thousand years of Muslim rule. an independent country called Falastin ruled by Falastinians.

The Jews after 18 centuries of exile commanded by G-d returned and brought the wasteland their homeland had become under Muslim rule back to life. And the sons of Ishmael -- who wielded a lethal weapon in his day called a bow and arrow used for killing food and other men -- came up with a fairy tale called the Palestinian Narrative, the "Palestinian" version of history, in which their ancient and beloved homeland from time immemorial was stolen from them by the racist Jews who created an apartheid state.

In this mental universe, Jewish nationalism is inherently exclusivist and racist for denying the Palestinians what the Jews have: an independent state in their ancient homeland. They call theirs "Israel" at the same time they oppress and deny to the "Palestinians" the very same right to have a state in their own ancient homeland too.

This is what rattles around in the brains of such men as Jimmy Carter. As Barack Hussein Obama is a PR spokesman for the enemies of America in Iran, so Carter flacks for HAMAS, whose charter calls Jews apes and pigs. Last year, Carter opined that Israel's refusal to negotiate with HAMAS was wrong. "HAMAS cannot be wished away, not will it cooperate in its own demise. Only recognizing its legitimacy as a political actor -- one that represents a substantial portion of the Palestinian people -- can the West begin to provide the right incentives for HAMAS to lay down its weapons."

Jimmy Carter is an evil man. What he is doing here is evil. Today's outstanding Jew-killers are no longer German Nazis goose-stepping and bullying and murdering their way around Europe; today's most prominent Jew-killers are Muslims in general and the Muslim Brotherhood in particular, which is what HAMAS is. This is the equivalent of Jimmy Carter, had he been born a generation earlier, flacking for the Nazis in their evil deeds against us Jews.

You know my three-word definition of antisemitism: lying about Jews, and it was blatant lies in Carter's book that Stein knew were lies, so he walked. Likewise the liberal Jews in the Atlanta community who were on the board of Carter's Center for Peace or whatever he calls it. They could not stomach the lies in that book either and resigned. And here he is again with his cracked version of reality.

Carter calls on Israel to recognize HAMAS as a legitimate political actor, and for my money this is a violation of life as old as the Garden of Eden. In the Garden of Eden man ate of the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil. Think of English philosopher John Locke's notion of the mind as a tabula rasa, a blank writing tablet, on which man, so to speak, downloads information, and in this case the first download is the knowledge of the difference between good and evil, so when Jimmy Carter calls these monstrous outlaws, these criminals who do not respect the law in civilized societies; calls them legitimate, from the Latin lex for law, he mixes what is legitimate, with what is criminal, illegitimate, illegal. As the PLO honors as heroes mass murderers, so Carter makes legal the criminals in HAMAS whose ethical system allows them to fire at random rockets into Jewish apartment houses and shopping centers, schools, shuls and children's playgrounds. These are the people Jimmy Carter is flacking for. For Carter, those tens of thousands of projectiles shot at us like this do not disqualify HAMAS from being a "legitimate political actor," his words.

Jimmy Carter is evil. He is doing evil here, as all antiJews are evil-doers by harboring and telling lies about Jews that license other people to murder us.

This is whom Jimmy Carter is flacking for: HAMAS, these homicidal Muslim maniacs who produced al-Qaida and 9-11. HAMAS's principle claim to fame likewise was its suicide bombers. Same thing.

It is as if Jimmy Carter is playing defense lawyer for al-Qaida, for the 9-11 sky devils.

Today in Israel, we remember the soldiers who died to preserve our freedom to live as well as we do. No, Israel is not utopia but it is a Hell of a lot better than the way our neighbors live, and I do mean a Hell of a lot better. That is, we live with the absence of the Hell that the Arabs create for themselves.

Syrian cities have been reduced to rubble; homes and businesses alike. Iraq is battling ISIS that is kidnapping and enslaving and raping and murdering with abandon. Iran is backing the Houthis in Yemen. In Egypt, every man in uniform is a target of Brotherhood assassins.

“Assassins,” not coincidentally, is an Arabic-derived word used in the West, in different languages if not in identical ways. In French, it is assassin, and in Spanish asesino, and in Italian assassino used for common murderers in a way in English it is not. In English, an assassin has political or religious motives and plans his murder well in advance.

“Assassination” is a word that means giving someone, or getting, “the Arab treatment:” the ambush of a defenseless and unsuspecting person.

Today we remember the dead, the soldiers and the thousands of Jews here murdered; here, not in Europe, by goyim that are as crazed about Jews as any in Europe in history, Christian or post-Christian, pagan or socialist.

And now another story in the news has surfaced concerning the delusional Jew-hatred on college campuses. Today it was not UC Irvine but UC Riverside where students have been offered a course to be taught not by a faculty member but a fellow undergraduate to be called “Palestine and Israel: Settler Colonialism and Apartheid.”

And there you have it, as remarked before. Apartheid is a word used by Carter and today’s version of Jew-haters to camouflage their view of Jews as greedy exclusivists, racists who shut others out and claim to have a unique relationship to G-d; to be better than anyone else.

“Settler Colonialism” is the partner expression to Apartheid here in this course title. “Colony” is also the identical word Jimmy Carter has used to describe bedroom communities of Israel’s cities built after 1967.

There are several reasons to grieve over people like these and not the least is their pathetic grasp of history. A study of the colonies created by European peoples in the Age of Discovery will uncover no resemblance whatsoever to these bedroom communities built on barren land that displaced no allegedly archaic Balestinian family.

Colonies were started around the globe for “gold, glory and the gospel,” and in just about every case, the colony was established for its natural wealth that could be extracted to enrich the home country.

Our so-called settlements have no natural resources under them that Israel has extracted and sold to any home country.

Many of them, although now on the high ground that had been in Jordanian hands before 1967, remain within sight of the coast; that is how close to the seashore they are. Yes, for example, the French had far flung colonies in Polynesia, quite a distance from Paris. Jimmy Carter's Zionist "colonies," though, are commonly less than an hour's drive from downtown Tel-Aviv, Beer-Sheva or Jerusalem. Some "colonies."

Jimmy Carter and his ilk, and those lunatics at UC Riverside have in their heads, one guesses, images of us settlers drinking mint julips as we are carried around in sedan chairs on the shoulders of native Balestinian porters.

So if UC Riverside allows this lunatic, antisemitic farce of a course to proceed, which sees colonialism and apartheid in Israel, it will collaborate not in the value of free speech but age-old Jew-hatred, that is, lying about Jews.

And what is interesting about this story is that the Jewish groups, some 20 I read, now jointly protesting this to Janet Napolitano, now president of the entire UC system, are using the word "antisemitism" to describe this alleged course in Middle East politics.

It is antisemitism because it is so one-sided and chock full of lies even in the course title. There is no colonialism; there is absolutely nothing in Israel's relationship to the 2,000 square miles captured from the enemy in 1967 that resembles the age of colonialism in the least.

There are no apartheid laws in Israel as there were in South Africa. That is why this is classical, age-old Jew-hatred, unfortunately still called antisemitism, when that is word I would like to see retired. It was a lie the moment it was invented in the 19th century when Europe's intellectuals lost their faith in Christianity. No longer able intellectually capable of hating Jews for killing G-d, as the common man used to say, they had to come up with another explanation that became what we call antisemitism. No longer would a right-thinking, Enlightened, post-Christian European hate the Jews for killing Jesus; now it was because they were Semites, Asiatics and so culturally and even biologically so racially different, they could not and should not be allowed to live as equals with Europeans. As Asiatics, they suffered from an inherently lower form of civilization. They were less honest. Like gypsies, they were chronic cheaters in business.

And so on and so forth.

Tonight and tomorrow, we mourn our dead, faced as we have been throughout history by goyim whose brains teem with lies about Jews.

On the home front, JPost's Khalid Toameh reported on how a delegation of 10 PA ministers and 30 other PA employees went to Gaza this week. He called them PA "officials" when I hate to use that word to describe these Fatah terrorists, which is what the PA is. And when there they found themselves basically under house arrest in their hotel. They had come to deal with the fact that their loyalists in Gaza, although unemployed, have not received their paychecks. The PA in Ramallah has continued to pay them since 2007 when Hamas took over, but lately there has been a problem.

Anyway, once in Gaza Hamas would not let the 40 meet with their loyalists at all. They would not even let them leave their hotel.

And I mention this small news item because it sheds some light on the truth of Israel's handling of the PA. Bibi, as you saw, has restored most if not all the funds he had blocked as punishment for the PA joining the International Criminal Court, and he did so as part of the normal rule, really, of Israel's administration over these people. We have to do these things from time to time. Abbas, remember, was indignant at Israel's blocking of the usual flow of money and he threatened to break off all security cooperation – when that was a bluff. In fact, Abu Toameh reported last week, the security cooperation has never stopped, for it commonly concerns the common effort by both Israel and the PA to ride herd on their common foe, Hamas. The PA cutting off security cooperation with Israel is potentially suicidal. The threat was hot air from the beginning.

And this news item also reveals another reason why the Two-State Solution is simply not of this world. Look at the what the Arabs in Syria have been doing to one another these last four years; consider the Sunni-Shia violence in Iraq; Shiite Houthis in Yemen killing their Sunni rivals, and you can bet that the day after Israel abandons Judea and Samaria (G-d forbid) the Arabs would start their own local gang-war, which is basically what these clashes are all over the Middle East.

Think of the American Civil War and what was at stake: the institution of slavery as a political and economic system; think of the Spanish Civil War in the 1930s between loyalists and republicans. Again, politics was the cause, politics and policies.

But in Araby, it is religion and power not even between different religions but sects of the same religion. Imagine, G-d forbid, in Israel, Hasidim and Misnagdim begin killing each other in the streets; imagine that in the States the Presbyterians and the Baptists, Methodists and Evangelicals, G-d forbid, were using machine guns and artillery on one another.

The Two-State Solution is a fantasy with no leasehold in the reality of the Middle East. The peace process has been a sham from day one in 1993. At that time, it sold the world the fantasy that Arafat and Abbas and friends had come around to recognizing the right of the Jewish people to live free in their own ancient country.

That was nonsense. More than nonsense, it was a complete fabrication of reality. There was not one sliver of evidence in 1993 that the Arabs had come around to accepting the rightness of the Jews to their own state. There had not been one opinion piece in any Arab newspaper saying that it was time for Araby to stop its war against the Zionist entity.

There had not been one public affairs program on any Arab TV station in which recognition of Israel was discussed and supported by prominent people.

Oslo was believing, on the part of Beilin, Peres and the Israeli Left, that Arafat and Abbas were genuinely committed to peace with Israel. Oslo was rooted in the belief that these mass murdering antisemites were not above lying; that they were sincere; that although they had been terrorist murderers for decades, they finally had done tshuva, repented and seen the error of their ways and now could be trusted in their professions of peaceable intent.

Oslo was evidence of the Jews as the Chosen People, a special people, for Oslo was a special kind of stupidity about people, even a supernatural stupidity that only a special chosen people could be capable of.

Finally, let's end this otherwise somber evening with a touch of good news: the upcoming publication of a book exposing Hillary Clinton for the undeniable criminal that she is.

Remember she was fired in Watergate Days by a boss shocked at her indifference to the law in her pursuit of their mutual goal, which was nailing Richard Nixon.

When her White Water scandal broke twenty years ago, I had no knowledge of that or any earlier episode of deviousness on this woman's part so I did not judge her one way or the other.

But since then, and that was twenty years ago, and the email business, and the lies about Benghazi, this woman does not belong in politics. She does not have the right stuff to be president.

Her hubby King Billy the Kinky was nicknamed, while still Governor of Arkansas by Arkansas Gazette editor Paul Greenberg, as "Slick Willy," and now it appears, these two were birds of a feather. She may be even more corrupt than here is.

Okay, no webcast Thursday, Israeli Independence Day. I'll be back, G-d willing, on Sunday.
