Shalom laYehudim, Shalom laBnai Noach, Shalom laGoyim. It's the evening of the 2nd day, tes beElul, Parashas Ki Saytsay, the evening of the 1st day, Sunday, 23 August 2015, webcasting from Islam's obsession.

History may someday focus on the spring of 2009, when elections in Iran went against the junta of Muslim priests who rule that land and the president of the United States of America said not a word to encourage the opposition, not even when, not surprisingly, the regime literally opened fire on demonstrators outraged by the refusal of the regime to accept the election results and responded in classic, dictatorial style. When a mass of people demonstrate, the regime does not mobilize police trained in crowd control. You bring out the marksmen and you start shooting to kill. That is an excellent way to break up a demonstration. And so they did and murdered the beautiful Nedā Āghā-Soltān, a 26 year-old philosophy student who wasn't in the demonstration but just a bystander. And the president of the United States of America was silent.

Historians will puzzle of the fact that since 1979, the U.S. has been the target of Iran. Perhaps thousands of its soldiers have been killed and wounded in terror operations in Iraq, Lebanon, Yemen, Saudi Arabia, all stemming from Iran, and here was the president of the United States mute before this regime that had been working on building atomic bombs for over a decade, a regime identified in the West as the No. 1 terror-sponsoring state, one of the three states called the Axis of Evil by the previous U.S. administration.

This too was part of Obama's "fundamental change," all tied to, I think, Obama's classical obsession with Jews and Islam's need to destroy the State of Israel. What a con man this chronic liar has been and remains; this traitor to the United States sowing, in classic, psychologically projective images, the lie that American Jews and politicians who do not support his “fundamental change” are the traitors.

And it was Iran on Thursday that was behind the firing of rockets from Syria, for the first time in 42 years, into the Galilee and the Golan. Four of them, two in each locale.

And not coincidentally, two days before, the prime minister and defense minister visited that area to inspect army readiness. Israel was, in other words, expecting such a rocket launch.

The upside of this tale is the evidence of Israel’s amazing intelligence capabilities. On Friday, the next day, a carload of the rocket launchers 15 miles from Israel’s border was toddling along when it suddenly exploded and all inside died. Probably hit by a rocket fired from a drone.

I imagine that Israeli drones -- and Israel is the world pioneer in drones -- are circling over Syria 24-7. Obviously, indeed, that drone strike on that car nailed the rocket launching team of the day before because Israel likely has drones with cameras reading license plates and sending back razor sharp images of faces and the capability to keep track of these guys 24-7.

For sure, in the official government press release regarding the four rockets that hit Israel on Thursday, the commander of the operation on the other side was specifically named, an Iranian, one Said Izhadi, and that is a most unusual thing to do.

Following the attack, the prime minister also instructed the Foreign Ministry to send an official letter of protest to all P5+1 foreign ministers to inform them that the beneficiary of their decision, Iran, was behind this attack. The unit was the murderous cult group called Palestine Islamic Jihad though it takes orders from Said Izhadi of Iran’s Revolutionary Guards, basically one of the two private armies of the mullah dictatorship. The Israeli letter to the disgraceful P5+1 countries said, “This is further, clear indication of Iran’s increasing involvement in attacks against Israel in particular and against regional targets in general. The ink on the nuclear agreement has not yet dried, and this attack shows clearly how Iran plans to act the moment after the international sanctions are removed...Israel demands that the countries that signed with Iran now intervene against Iran’s increasing belligerence.”

Fat chance that is going to happen.

If memory serves, it was a long piece, like two weeks ago, by veteran Israeli Arab affairs journalist Ehud Yaari who outlined what Iran wants to do, based, in part, I think, on that book Falastin. No, they don’t want to drop an atomic on Israel but destroy it with a thousand cuts in the form of constant missile attacks like this and even attempts to penetrate Israel and capture communities and hold them if only temporarily. The object is to make life in Israel unlivable, make Israelis miserable, drive people to leave the country, constant mobilization. The Golan is an Israeli vacation spot, a plateau 40 miles by 10 miles, and a constant drizzle of even small projectiles could destroy the tourist industry there, the livelihood of many of the 20-25,000 people who live there.

This is why Israel's response was as swift and unforgiving as possible. Israel is determined not to let that border become another Gaza. And by naming the Iranian commander of the operation, Israel was sending the message that not just the low level operatives would die.

Iran truly is our No. 1 enemy, and that is why Obama's "fundamental change" has been rooted in helping Iran. Go back to 2009 when he shut up following that attempted revolution that failed.

The IDF, according to Friday's JPost, has "already concluded the construction of numerous roadblocks and obstacles near Shlomi [that is a small town a few kilometers only from the border with Lebanon and the Mediterranean coast.] These roadblocks and obstacles are aimed at preventing terrorists from crossing the frontier and taking control of roadways, outposts, even townships. Preparatory work has long been concluded in towns and communities adjacent to the border. In some areas, the army has built artificial trenches and put up walls...On the day that hostilities erupt, the northern communities will be evacuated. In their place will come battalions of combat troops. The evacuation plans have already been prepared, as have the plans for an attack on the other side of the border. Israel will unleash the full extent of its might and do all in its power in order to finish the next round within days."

Well, I don't know about you, but I find this scenario horrifying and outrageous. 70 years after Auschwitz there are still billions of people, mostly Muslims, constantly attacking Jews and wishing to destroy their lives and communities. And now they are supported by the United States of America, by Great Britain, France, Russia, China and even Germany.

I imagine what Iran is planning is an endless life of such attacks in which even thousands of Muslims occasionally storm the northern border to capture Israeli land and communities, even if for only a few days or even weeks until they are driven out and the communities left in ruins.

And we have the traitor to America, Muslim Jew-hater in the Oval Office, to thank for this developing situation. Maybe because he is such a frightening figure, too many American Jews cheer him on. My own congressman -- I still vote absentee -- Jerrold Nadler became on Friday another one of them who got down on his knees, bowed down to Obama and blessed his plan to give 150 billion dollars to the Iranians and allow them to go ahead and build atomic bombs.

These people are pathetic. In his magnum opus Falastin by Ayatollah Khomeini, the Jews in Israel are called "anti-human criminals" or "antihuman Zionist occupiers," and you better believe he was not thinking only of Yosh. For him, every square meter in Israel is occupied by us "anti-human criminals." Khomeini in his book spoke of his predecessor Ayatollah Khomeini and said, "Since the first days of his struggle in Iran he gave the first priority to the issue of Palestine. He continued the same mission after he defeated the Shah and established the Islamic Republic. In his political and spiritual will, Imam Khomeini talked about Falastin to Muslims all around the world and highlighted the religious obligation in the conflict."

Indeed, in his book the current ayatollah insists – and proves my view of many years – that the struggle over Israel is not a political one but a religious one.

And I say, Muslims in fighting to destroy Israel are fighting for the very existence of Islam.

In Friday's Jerusalem Post, there was a nasty op-ed written by the vice president of public affairs for the New Israel Fund (NIF) one Naomi Paiss who attacked New York public relations agent Ron Torossian who also opines on the Arutz 7 site. He claimed afterwards that these were lies and had his lawyer call JPost and JPost today printed an apology to him.

But what yours truly found revealing, apart from the particulars of this particular op-ed and Torossian's response, was greater insight into the minds of these anti-Israel Jews and just how ignorant they are of Israel and the region we live in.

First off, she quoted Jeffrey Goldberg's description of Torossian as the "lunatic fringe," when I say it is Goldberg who represents the lunatic fringe for supporting this obvious antisemite in the White House who wants to destroy Israel.

This Naomi Paiss also attacked Pamela Geller as an Islamophobe. And as soon as yours truly hears anyone use that term seriously, I know I am listening to not only an idiot but also an ignoramus who has no knowledge of the origin of that very recently invented neologism, Islamophobia. It was invented because the Muslims are chronically envious of Jews even of antisemitism for it gave Jews the moral power to blackmail the world in allowing them to steal Palestine in compensation for its latest eruption called the Holocaust.

So they came up with this word to match antisemitism. As people hate Jews, so they fear and hate Muslims. People have an irrational hatred of Jews and also of Muslims, and Pamela Geller is one of them. She has no rational basis for fearing Muslims. No one does.

And I say civilized people who do not fear Muslims are the irrational ones.

This Naomi Paiss says the New Israel fund is a "proudly progressive organization that backs Israelis working for human rights, social justice and religious freedom."

Well, on display here is her and her camp's dishonest self-image and also reveals they are not a Jewish organization. I've mentioned going for a job interview with the ADL many years ago and discovering it was not a Jewish organization but an American organization for people of Jewish background who don't want that fact to harm them in their American lives.

She said the NIF "backs Israeli working for human rights," and I say, "Taurine Excreta! " The record shows that in the last year alone, in every year really...how many Jews have been murdered and stabbed by Arabs versus Arabs murdered and stabbed by Jews? Then ask the question, "Which side is the greater victim?" What is the greatest human right if not the right to life? The hypocrisy of these pro-Balestinian Jews in waving the banner of “human rights” when it is fellow Jews who suffer the greatest attacks is intolerable.

Notice too she does not call NIF a Jewish organization but a “proudly progressive one” whose concerns are “human rights, social justice and religious freedom.” In this list of three, I see no particular concern for Jewish people.

And how involved has the New Israel Fund been in the daily curb on Jewish religious freedom on the Temple Mount? What this ditzy woman has in mind is the freedom of Reform Jewish women to violate traditional Jewish practice at the Western Wall which is blatantly apparent every time they show up on the New Moon. Each time they are in the minority among the Jewish women praying at the Wall in classical fashion.

This dummy says the NIF opposes the “occupation of the West Bank” as well. She seems not to know that there is no occupation; that serious jurists have judged the “West Bank,” as she calls it, rightfully the property of the State of Israel. And I’ll bet this dumbbell has never noticed that the word “Jew” comes from the very word Judea that she supports denying Jews the right to live in.

She writes, “We are unwavering in our support for the Founders’ vision of Israel as a liberal democracy.”

These people live in a world of their own imagination. The Israeli Declaration of Independence – which I can read in the original and I am sure she cannot -- contains no such expression as “liberal democracy.” The word “liberal” does not appear at all; neither does the word “democracy.”

She says the NIF opposes the BDS movement but “will not deny funding to organizations that call for a boycott of settlement products. Israelis deserve the right to express their outrage at the settlements.”

She complains of the increase in Israel of “racism and extremism where the power of messianic-minded ultranationalists has grown.”

Now get this: “More and more Americans understand the difference between loving Israel and supporting the current government’s policies. It may be the most hardline in Israel’s history. Its narrative is dominant in Israel and progressives do not yet have the power to combat it.”

What this shallow woman does not see about herself and her organization is evident here. She and they have no respect for the people of Israel whom they purport love; no respect because they seem to ignore that Israel is a democracy (however inferior to others, but that is another story.) It still reflects the will of the people which is why the people have repeatedly, since 1977, turned to the right to lead it. What this NIF mouthpiece does not see is her contempt for the people of Israel who have voted for Netanyahu repeatedly. In effect, these NIF types like her do not respect Israelis at all. “Look at whom they choose for a leader, the most hardline leader in history.”

A generation ago, American Jews like her parents and grandparents were true supporters of the people of Israel by supporting whomever the people elected to lead them. This was bottom-line American Jewish policy based on a truth that they themselves claimed. They would say, “We do not live in Israel and our sons do not fight and die for Israel.” And for this the American Jewish community saw it as its mission to support the government of Israel that the people of Israel democratically chose.

In other words, lurking beneath this woman’s self-image as a progressive lover of Israel is contempt for the people of Israel who are so benighted as to vote for Netanyahu and his messianic-minded ultra-nationalists.

This op-ed exposes and not for the first time the hostility to Israel found in the NIF underneath the camouflage of being fighters for human rights, and the functional arrogance of thinking that versus the almost two-thirds of the electorate that voted for right-wing and religious parties last March, she and her cronies in the U.S. in the New Israel Fund know better what’s good for Israel than the Israelis who actually live and pay taxes and go into the army here.

Like Obama, the New Israel Fund types, back the enemies of Israel.

Yes indeedly. These progressives, these leftists who dismiss Pamela Geller as an Islamophobe are slaves of their own inner demons when it comes to being Jews and Jews in America. People who cannot see the danger of Islam, which has erupted so bloodily and so often over the last half-century, are living in the same denial as the Muslims who think the Jews just made up the Holocaust.

I doubt such types ever read the posts on Palestinian Media Watch or Memri.org, both of which have archived videos and audios and articles of insane Jew-hatred spewed by Arabs and Muslims. Types like this Naomi Paiss, vice-president for public affairs in the New Israel Fund, have likely never read even one book in their lives on the life of Jews under Islam and have never read the Koran which is steeped in Jew-hatred.

It does not dawn on them that Islam and Muslims today are as bent out of shape in their minds about out Jews as the Catholic Church at its worst; as the Nazis at their worst. The Jewish Telegraph Agency just reported on a public broadcast in Spain that accused the Jews of promoting devil worship.

The station’s call letters are RTVE. It is government-owned, and last month ran a program entitled “From Hell: the Jewish People as Propagator of the Satan Cult.” The narration included, “The Jews first propagated the cult of Lucifer in several secret satanic societies. Through black magic, the Israelis called on the powers of darkness with demonic rational.”

Of course the Israeli Embassy in Spain protested and the Foreign Ministry here. A spokesman, Yigal Palmor, asked how a public entity can give a podium to this sort of crude, lowly, and disgusting racism. It is a return of the Inquisition.”

But significantly, for Israelis, he made no reference to antisemitism.

On the bright side, speaking of Spain, last night Matisyahu performed. There were, one report said, some hecklers but nothing serious.

He also, G-d bless him, performed one of this earlier numbers entitled, "Jerusalem." Good for him.

Meanwhile, according to Makor Rishon on Friday, the next diplomatic aggression against us from the PA will be demanding that the EU denied visas to any Jew who lives in Judea and Samaria in a settlement.

Okay. But what about the scores of thousands Jews who live in Jerusalem neighbors that no one considers a settlement -- at least here. Evidently, they want a blacklist of the hundreds of thousands of Israelis who live over the 1949 ceasefire line so that the EU can deny them visas.

This aggression is another than Israel needs to combat frontally by declaring, finally, that Judea and Samaria are legally Israeli lands. Religiously, they are the site of so many of the powerful and meaningful episodes in our Bible. Denying Judea and Samaria and Jerusalem to Jews would be like denying Mecca and Medina and the Hedjaz to the Arabs; like denying Kyoto to Japan's Buddhists; denying the Ganges to Hindus, the Vatican to Catholics, Canterbury Cathedral to the English.

The one positive side, if we can call it that, to be found in that new book out of Iran by El Supremo, is his claim, repeated many times, that this is a religious conflict not a political one, and Israel would profit from rebranding the enemy as not Balestinians -- there is nothing Palestinian about that -- but as Muslims whose religion, whose Sharia law, calls for the oppression and humiliation of Jews.

Then let us see the New Israel Fund go to bat for Jews in Eretz Israel denied the right to live in our God-given Promised Land, ground zero of our religion and to practice it in peace and tranquility.
