Shalom laYebudim, Shalom laBnai Noach, Shalom laGoyim. It is the evening of the 2nd day, beTammuz, Parashas Balak, tav-shin-ayin-vav, the evening of the 1st day, Sunday, 10 July 2016, webcasting from Israel, island of civilization constantly clawed at by Arab barbarians.

On Friday, Makor Rishon reported on what does not get reported in the MSM because it makes the Arabs in Judea and Samaria look bad. A couple of weeks ago now, in Jenin and Nablus, the Arabs mispronunciation of Nea Polis, its Greco-Roman name, six Arabs died in shootouts between PA police and unknown armed groups with their own automatic weapons.

It is sort of like that in Gaza too with a half-dozen, perhaps, groups: Hamas, Islamic Jihad, al-Nusrat, al-Qaeda, ISIS and who knows who else.

It was like this in Lebanon in the 1970s and 80s with the PLO groups, 12-18 of them, which says something about their society.

Debkafile also published a map the other day of the Golan that is now bordered by such groups where the old Syrian regime is no longer. There is ISIS and al-Qaida, Hezbollah and the Khaled bin al-Walid Army. Also in the picture is the Islamist Liwa Shouada Yarmouk and the Moulhana Islamic Movement "militias." Never heard of them.

This is Debkafile talking, but I reject this common use of the word "militias" to describe these groups. Militias associate to citizens who go to fight when necessary but otherwise they are civilians who assemble when necessary with their own weapons. That is a militia.

By contrast, every one of these groups is a gang of men addicted to firing weapons and trying to kill people, who don't care if they are killed because then they go to Muslim Paradise.

So in Arab Judea and Samaria, the situation is not all that different, where the PA police like the American police these days are under attack, targets of black psychopaths backed by the president of the United States. His response to what just happened in Dallas was, as usual, regardless of the tough words surely written for him, ice cold. No passion, no real anger that a crazy black man murdered five cops.

And so it is in Arab Judea and Samaria where young bucks with automatic weapons see the PA and its police as illegitimate and therefore legitimate targets for their violence. In my book, I chronicle the endless gang wars in southern Lebanon in the 1970s and 80s between the Sunni PLO against the Shiite Lebanese; and between the various Sunni PLO groups fighting one another. Also, Muslims murdering Christians and Christians murdering Muslims.

Well, I submit that the current situation in the region is hardly new in the history of the Middle East. This is a region that never outgrew its archaic culture, its pre-Islamic features. The Arabs never developed, for example, the concept of divine right kingship. The Arabs never developed the concept of a peaceful and legitimate succession of power. The Arabs also never understood that politics mixed with priesthood produces an unstable and lethal society.

The American Revolution was not only about independence from England but the destruction of divine right monarchy. The revolutionaries wanted a republic.

In their generation, it was right to want to end divine right monarchy, but in its heyday it was the right form of rule. What a divine right monarchy does is bless the royal family so that no one outside of it can claim to be the rightful king. It ensures a peaceful succession when the king dies and the prince takes over. Divine right monarchy also welds together disparate provinces.

The Arabs, though, never developed such a system. The Arabs, like a herd of wild donkeys in the wilderness, never discovered communal self-rule. And without a royal family, the succession following the death of a leader leads to assassination and counter-assassination. That is the history of the Arabs.

The Arabs are nomads, unbridled like wild donkeys, who never wanted to submit to civil society and authority. If the Arab did not like his mukhtar, his local charismatic leader, he could always pack up his tent and make off with his women and camels and children to another part of the desert to pitch his tent.

It is a society which has never risen above rule by strongmen, by gang leaders. What was Saddam Hussein, that thug with his two psychopathic sons, if not a gang leader, not the head of nation?

Same with Gaddafi. Same with all of them. They say in Syria over these last five years there have been hundreds of cells opposed to the regime that never have united and even spend time fighting one another.

These are our neighbors, and now some their groups are encamped along the Golan border having taken the place of Assad's army and police. These are not militias, in my mind. They are gangs, cults.

I doubt they pose any strategic threat. If Israel wants to wipe them out tomorrow, it could with a morning's work of sorties and bombing runs.

I imagine, for them, their presence is as much a kind of tourism so they can, when back home, tell the folks they actually went up to the border of the state of the Jews and looked in to see this land of Satan's helpers, those Jews.

PMW reported on Thursday on a cartoon series for children produced by the Fatah and shown on its TV channel during Ramadan, which just ended, in which the Jews, everyone, is a little Satan and together they scheme to destroy Muhammad. They are described as harboring "burning hatred and loathing of Muhammad and his supporters that fills the hearts of the Jews."

Indeed, the PA Minister of Religion Mahmoud Habbash recently said the conflict with Israel is a conflict with Satan. "We are not inventing anything new here. This is a conflict between two entities, good and evil, between projects. Allah's project vs. Satan's project."

Jews in this series are also presented as never keeping their word, their treaties – a clear case of psychological projection. It is the Arabs who do not.

Overall, it is the Arab equivalent of educational TV for children. No, it is not "Sesame Street" but "Hate the Jews and Kill Them Street." And I never stop feeling frustrated by an Israeli government that never exposes to the world just how crazy and retarded these people are.

Think of it this way: From the giving of the Five Books to the Children of Israel at Mt. Sinai who were expected to learn to read and live by them and the rise of Islam, almost two thousand passed before the birth of Islam.

Put another way, Christianity was already in its seventh century when Islam arose claiming to be the last and truest manifestation of monotheism whose greatest prophet was not Moses, not Jesus, but Muhammad the great head chopper.

And when Islam arose, for sure its minions were almost wholly illiterate. The first book in Arabic is the Koran produced at the end of the 7th century.

The canon of our Hebrew Tanakh was at that time a thousand years old. The canon of the Babylonian Talmud also had closed more than a century before Islam appeared. Jews were comfortable reading and writing in Hebrew, Aramaic, Greek, Latin -- all with traces in the Talmud -- and here were the Arabs getting their first book; that is how retarded they were, how behind they were. And to this day fourteen centuries later, an ungodly percentage remain illiterate.

And I say their behavior is still so anchored in ancient times it is spooky. How alien, how utterly alien it is to me, to you, to civilized people, to want to and carry out what was done to Hallel-Yaffa Ariel, b"y. The soul in that 17 year-old boy capable of doing what he did to her is so alien to me, his feelings, his thoughts, it is almost incomprehensible.

What possesses a person like to him to do that? To surprise a helpless little girl in her bed and stab her eight times?

And then his father, after Jews had killed him, praised him. What kind of people are these?

In the 2006 elections here, Hamas won. Fatah literally refused to vacate government offices, and Hamas had to literally drag them out and even throw some off rooftops.

The idea of two states nestled in harmonious embrace here, the one Jewish and civilized, the other anarchic and barbaric, is not of this world.

So, last evening again in Judea, a Jewish family riding home from Shabbat with the relatives, was hit by bullets fired by homicidal Arabs not far from the community of Tekoa. Miraculously, only the father was hit in the foot.

I guess this is our fate. In the news last week, there also was a video, a computer animation, of an imagined killing, G-d forbid, of Yehuda Glick done by the Arabians. The police have given him protection. His crime, remember, is demanding the right of Jews to be able to pray in peace on the Temple Mount. For this he was shot two years ago, almost killed, and here is this new Arab video fantasy of shooting him again and really finishing him off this time, G-d forbid.

And again, I am simply amazed, fascinated too really, by official Israel and Jews in general who never highlight just how sadistic and savage and bonkers our neighbors are. Israel tolerates the dominance of the "Palestinian Narrative" according which the Jews stole their entire country and won't give back even a piece of it so they too can have the state that they have dreaming of from time immemorial.

Unfortunately, Israel refrains from shining a light on the true propellant of Arab hatred and its religious dimension that predates 1967, predates 1947, 1917 and 1897.

We are the target of Muslims, of Arabs and no less – and this very important -- the non-Arab non-Muslims abroad in the world who hate Jews too, For example, the European Left and the Israel Apartheid Week impresarios. What, after all, is the new NGO law here about if not the support gentiles and antiJew Jews abroad funnel to antiJew Jews inside Israel to smear Israel with lies of Jewish perfidy as in days of old? You all know that for centuries Catholic priests every Good Friday were ordered by the superiors to preach on the “Perfidy of the Jews.”

That was then and today it’s the European parliament giving a standing ovation to Mahmoud Abbas spewing charges of Jewish evil right out of the Middle Ages.

It is the EU foreign policy Mafia as well led by that the ex-young Italian Communist leader Federica Mogherini. It is the French too who summoned 28 nations to discuss what to order the Jews to do.

Israelis, though, do not have the tools, the intellectual and spiritual vessels, to face the reality that the creation of Israel has not done away with lunatic antisemitism. For example, YNETnews today reported on a joint Jordanian-Ancient Palestinian resolution that will be voted on in an upcoming UNESCO meeting, a resolution that denies, and not for the first time in a UNESCO resolution, the Jewish connection to our Temple Mount.

UNESCO has a World Heritage Committee of 21 states that meets once year. The first time this committee mauled Israel on the matter of the Temple Mount was just last April when it “condemned Israeli aggression on the Temple Mount” and dismissed “all Israeli or Jewish claims over the Mount, including the Western Wall.”

The Israeli foreign ministry released a statement blasting this upcoming joint Jordanian-Balestinian text, calling it another “malicious and dishonest attempt to damage the Israeli connection to its capital.”

Although in our time malevolent antisemites associate to goose-stepping Nazis, people can be just as malevolent when speaking in the dulcet tones of international diplomacy. In polite, diplomatic language, this World Heritage Committee of the UN will discuss this text denying the Jewish connection to the Temple Mount -- and never mind that the Temple is mentioned hundreds of times in Tanakh and the Talmud and over a hundred times in the Christian additions. It does not matter, for while the United Nations was founded by the Allied Powers, overwhelmingly from the democratic West, this committee’s 21 members are: Angola, Azerbaijan, Burkina Faso, Croatia, Cuba, Finland, Indonesia, Jamaica, Kazakhstan, Kuwait, Lebanon, Peru, Philippines, Poland, Portugal, Republic of Korea, Tunisia, Turkey, United Republic of Tanzania, Viet Nam and Zimbabwe. Nine, more than a third of these, are officially Muslim states: none of them, except Poland, can be connected to the Judeo-Christian West.

And so for them it is nothing to follow the Muslim lead in the committee according to which the Jews have no historical, religious connection to the Temple Mount, for Islam is all about re-writing history, like Holocaust Denial, like inventing “Palestinians” claiming to have not only a right to Palestine but a right superior to that of the Jews. Islam is all about re-writing history as the Koran itself is a re-writing of Jewish history.

What Israelis have yet to kehap, to “get” in Yiddish, is the abyss separating Jewish civilization and its people from Muslims who, to borrow from Ralph Waldo Emerson, march to the beat of a different drummer. Their kind of thinking and emotions work in different ways.

They live to a large degree in a world of fantasy. They fantasize, as the allegedly moderate Fatah produced in this children’s program depicting Jews as little devils, all working in concert to destroy Muhammad and oppress and humiliate Muslims, because that is what the Koran’s orders them to do to Jews.

Which makes sense. They want to do to us what we want to do them -- in their minds.

In this relationship between Israel and its immediate Arab Muslim neighbors and a little more distant Muslim Turkish and Iranian neighbors, the Jews are agents of Satan in this religious tug of war that Israelis keep trying to reconfigure as a non-religious political struggle between two nationalities.

And I say, “Fuggedaboutit.”

Israel must link arms with people in Europe prepared to resist the Muslim takeover of their countries and continent. Israel must encourage the U.S. to make a U-turn away from Obama’s view of Islam as a beautiful religion that has nothing to do with Orlando, San Bernardino, Boston, Chattanooga, Paris, Brussels or Istanbul.

It is all the same menace. It is original, authentic Islam. It is not radical Islam, not extremist Islam; it is just Islam.

Well, this decision by the FBI director James Comey continues to be the great puzzlement. Charles Krauthammer, like yours truly, was reminded of the decision made by Chief Supreme Court Justice Roberts in the ObamaCare challenge and Krauthammer thinks that Roberts did not want the Court to be responsible for such social legislation, and that is one possible explanation for Comey’s behavior, he thinks. Comey too, Krauthammer believes, does not want the FBI to be responsible for determining the November elections that an indictment surely would.

I don’t know. It surely is a major mystery, though we have yet to hear of the other investigation by the FBI into Hillary as secretary of state and the donations to the Clinton Foundation.

Otherwise, every legal expert I respect is as dumbfounded as I was watching that bizarre 14-minute bill of indictment by Comey against Hillary Clinton that climaxed in the 15th and final minute with that surprise, trick ending.

It is just another episode, or so it seems, in the imploding of America under this bad actor in the White House, this soulmate of Louis Farrakhan who just keeps that under wraps.

He was touted as the final healer between the races when he ran for election the first time, and now we have race riots not seen since the 1960s thanks to the behavior of this evil man. His ice cold delivery of words of rebuke for the killing of five cops in Dallas, the disconnect between his words and his demeanor, is what psychologists call his affect.

This guy is one bad actor. He played the race card in the Trayvon Martin case. He sided with the rabble-rousers in Ferguson. And all the while his black brothers in Chicago, where he has a home, have been killing each other every weekend in numbers it would take racist rogue cops to kill over years. About the killing of blacks by blacks, which is the real problem, he says nothing; he does nothing.

It has been his tolerance, he and Eric Holder, of the worst impulses in the Black community, employing Al Sharpton as an advisor, that has fueled the current ugliness of blacks marching and shouting to kill cops.

What a disaster he has been.
