Shalom laYehudim, Shalom laBnai Noach, Shalom laGoyim. It is the evening of the 6th day, yud bekbodesh Mar Khashvan, Parashas Lech Lecha, taf-shin-peh, 5780, the evening of the 5th day, Thursday, 7 November, 2019, webcasting from invisible Israel, invisible to Internazional anti-Judenthum.

HaShem says, in the world's not only No. 1 bestseller in history, clearly the most powerful book ever written... no other book comes close by creating so much world history: the amazingly supernatural history of the immensely creative and productive Jewish people, whose existence led to the creation of Christian civilization and Muslim culture...in the Koran, most pages contain verses either directly stealing from the Tanakh, or ideas that indirectly reflect it...In the Book, HaShem says no one can look upon Him and survive, which makes perfect sense. One can no more look in the face of G-d than stare into the sun without going blind.

And it appears the Book of Books has the power to blind those who hate Jews. The other day on DPP, I read some statement by the Students for Justice in Palestinian at Columbia that was positively unhinged in accusing Israel of racism and medical experiments on Palestinian children.

Yesterday, PMW posted the ideas of a regular columnist in the official PA daily, Muwaffaq Matar. "The United States killed their pawn al-Baghdadi who they planted in the open borderless territories of Iraq and Syria after they created the organized-state of barbarity, terror and racism for which they chose the name Islamic State.

You got that? The United States, he wrote, created ISIS. This is a man paid salary by the Palestinian Authority created by Dr. Joseph Beilin, PhD, funded by scores of peoples with a record antiJew aggression. Thank you, Dr. Beilin. These Arab Muslims have turned Joseph Goebbels into a moderate. This lunatic, delusional Arab Muslim Jew-hater says ISIS and Israel are indistinguishable. "The racism, crimes, bloodshed to terrorize people, emptying the land of its original owners, horrifying massacres, and subjugating the residents of the land to laws that are inappropriate even a world of animals all of these are characteristic common to the two states." (ISIS and Israel)

Yes, the State of Israel and the Islamic State are one and the same. And if the antonym of "wise" is "foolish," then there were no greater fools in Israel than Dr. Beilin and his mentor, St. Simon of Oslo and Isaac the son of Nehemiah Rabin and all the fools who thought that with men like Arafat and Abbas, like this SJP writer, it was possible to go into business with them, and I think that is an apt analogy because all of them had never been in business. They never had to produce, create, turn a profit, just hold the politically correct posture within the party and you have a career.

And in a larger dimension, it has yet to sink in, -- in the degenerating - literally - West, that is not having babies -- that this columnist in this PA paper is representative of millions of these Muslims, these Arabs who are afflicted with a plague of the mind that cannot tolerate guilt and spins off in self-defense with fairy tales in which the guilt belongs to their enemies, the Jews.

I think this PMW post is a gem of an example of the Arab mind that responds to bad news by denial that is functionally, on an individual level psychotic. I once saw a play in a theater in then lovely Seattle -- today I understand it is a prime specimen of the rot in America -- a play about a Catholic girl, a teenager who became pregnant but over the nine months managed to hide that. Then she gives birth by herself and drops the baby into a public trashcan. She is caught and denies everything. She was never pregnant, she says. She never had baby and could pass a lie detector test; such is the power of psychotic denial.

And this is the same mind at work on a much larger scale played out across a culture. This journalist who writes for the PA newspaper has a job, has a home, has a life and for him being a columnist means inventing a story contradictory to the truth based on nothing but wishful thinking in order to defend his community from the guilt.

Consider what Ilhan Omar did when Congress was asked to condemn antisemitism. She had to insist that other people beside those who hate Muslims and they too must be condemned -- as a distraction, as a form of inflation, like on UN Holocaust Day when the official statements condemn antisemitism and then a string of equally unacceptable attitudes. "There is nothing special about hating the Jews" is the message.

Here is PA journalist who is light-years away from even the corrupt journalists in the West today who still have a sense of right and wrong. Even a corrupt New York Times journalist would not deny there is such a thing as right and wrong and that it is not right to lie about events, make things up. They understand that; these Arabs don't.

Arab journalism is not about informing the public of events in their society. It is about expressing feelings and not about facts. Five days ago, it was the 102nd anniversary of the misnamed Balfour Declaration and of course every year the Arabs at this time must throw mud on the commemoration. An Arab journalist asked the current head of the UN Security Council, a Brit, Karen Pierce, to renounce the Balfour Declaration. She, a loyal Brit, said no. She was proud of Britain's role in creating Israel, but then of course she just to speak the creed of World AntiJewry by saying that Britain also supports the Two-State Solution. Translation: "Yes, the Jews have a right to a state but not only them. The Ancient Ones must also have a state just like the Jews. The Jews are not the Chosen People with an exclusive claim on Balestine. The Ancient Ones are just as entitled."

On Shabbos, an Egyptian media outlet likewise quoted Hanan Ashrawi demanding that Britain not only "apologize for the Declaration but must immediately recognize a Balestinian state on the so-called 1967 border, and Britain should compensate the Balestinians for their suffering."

But my favorite in this week of Balfour was the statement by the Democratic Reform Movement of Fatah. First of all, the name itself illuminates the lunacy of these people, and their abysmal ignorance. The Democratic Reform Movement in Fatah is the name of the group, and I ask, "What do these assassins of innocent people in terrorist atrocities, these members in the bloodiest of Arab terror gangs, what can these barbaric savages know of democracy?" They demanded, "The world must submit to the principle that there is no peace, security and stability in this region of the world until the restoration of our people's rights, the first of which is the right to independence and the building of its state with its capital Jerusalem"

I find this so fascinating; it makes me smile at the purity of this splendid example of the Arab mind at work. "The restoration of our people's rights." Restoration means returning to a previous state of being or existence, when never in the history of this land, which is the most written about patch of dry land on the planet, was there ever a people calling themselves "Palestinians" believing in and realizing their right to an independent state? He wants to restore a past that never was.

The logic of the statement is that in the past "Palestinians" had the right to an independent state, when there is no record of such a people here believing in and exercising that right.

It is a demand for owning something justified by a bogus history. It is a false claim. You've heard of fake news? This is fake history and its monumental dishonesty is compounded by the crime of intellectual property theft, more precisely spiritual property theft, stealing the very idea of this being the Holy Land from the Jews. This language wants us to believe that the "Palestinians" in the past and had longed for building a state, the same desire the Jews had, embodied by the Zionist movement which was a disguised, secular version of the ancient Jewish yearning to return to this land and make it live again. When in history was there ever a group of Arab Muslims believing in their right to build a state in this country whose capital would be Jerusalem?

The Ancient Ones claim the very country the Jews claim is their ancient homeland and their capital of Jerusalem too, the very same name the Jews have had on their lips every day in prayers and blessings before and after meals. Was there ever an Ancient Palestinian poet like Yehuda Halevy in medieval Spain lamenting “My heart is in the east, and I am in the west”?

Memri.org also posted a video, a sermon by an American-born Muslim preacher in Chicago who likewise insisted that ISIS was a creation of the Zionists who wanted to weaken Muslims by disrespecting their noble ideas as having an Islamic state, the idea of jihad, the idea of Muslim unity. The Zionists want to associate bad things to Islam. It is the same maneuver that we saw after 9-11 when most Muslims believed it was Mossad whose purpose was to make people not like Islam.

He showed photographs of ISIS fighters in uniforms and bearing weapons given them by the Israelis who trained them.

If the West wants to survive, it must allow itself to see Islam as it really is. As Jewishness is unique in human history, everything Islam stands for is opposed and glorified by this crackpot, pilfered imitation of a religion that Winston Churchill described as “the most retrograde force in the world,” and this behavior of inventing fantasies about the past to justify horror in the present is one of its manifestations.

Yes, Islam is as unique in the world as Yiddishkeit, if not for the same reasons. Nothing compares to the saga of the Jewish people and our immortal voyage through time.

Islam, though, has the merit of pulling billions of people out of the primeval mindset that was paganism, elevating those people to the concept of One G-d.

But otherwise, Islam has never been able to overcome and jettison the Hamitic character of Ham, Canaan and Ishmael; Ham whose mother was Naamah, descendant of the first murderer and simultaneously first fratricide, Cain.

Islam is in our time the true, last imperialism, the last ideology of conquest. The Christian explorers of the 15th century and centuries beyond strove for “gold, glory and the gospel,” and so too Muslims see their religion as a mission. In order to end human strife, the primitive mind reasons, all people must think the same way and all those who do not must be eliminated. The goal is noble; the end of strife. When all people belong to the world embracing umma, the community of Believers -- the umma, a word related to the international syllable associated with motherhood -- there will be no more conflict.

And, as even the Koran says, as al-Yahud was gifted with a land, so Believers have been gifted by Allah of the whole world. Believers have the right and obligation to overrun the whole world and make everyone a Muslim.

As I say, this is the last of the imperial ideologies. No more Communism except in the mind of simpletons like Bernie Sanders; no more Fascism, no more Nazism. The last surviving totalitarian ideology is Islam and it is on the march, which I fear the West in its degenerate phase does not recognize.

FOX-TV the other day had an interesting interview with a retired US Army colonel and author Douglas Macgregor who always has interesting things to say, with the original hypothesis that the horror in Mexico the other day -- the massacre and burning and slaughter of innocent babies, 7 people in a car, an American family -- is a further development in the reality of Mexico with the wheels coming off and degenerating into territory ruled by the satanic drug gangs and, he says, with the support of Iran.

Hezbollah, which is nothing but Iran in disguise, for years has had agents in Argentina, Uruguay, Brazil, now Venezuela, now Mexico, and has successfully infiltrated terrorists into the US in serious numbers capable of sabotage on a major scale. 9-11 was sabotage applauded by Iran and other jihadis in the world.

And it would be a big mistake to not see the connection between the horrors of Islamic terrorists and their far gentler operatives but still committed jihadis now campaigning and succeeding in infiltrating America's legal and governmental systems. Prime example, those three Muslim females in the US Congress, and others, I believe, in state legislatures and municipalities. Steve Emerson of the Investigative Project just posted a story about the election of a jihadi to the Fairfax, Virginia County schoolboard, home to George Mason University, a signer of the Declaration of Independence who is now likely spinning in his grave.

This 24-year-woman is the daughter of a major jihadi leader in the States. Emerson calls him an Islamist, a term I refuse to use. Her name is Abrar Omeish who was at Yale in 2014 at the head of the Muslim Students Association where she fought to prevent a talk on campus by Ayaan Hirsi Ali because "she did not have the academic credentials to speak Islam"-- and never the credential of being mutilated by Islam, of living unlike Ms. Omeish for years in Saudi Arabia, besides years in her native Somalia, this authoress of several highly intelligent and informative books that for sure Ms. Omeish will never write.

Unfortunately, however paradoxical it may sound, the tradition of freedom of conscience in the West has a downside. It allows Muslims to assert equality with Christianity and Judaism and Buddhism and Hinduism and Jainism, none of which are currently engaged in forcefully, murderously trying to force their religion on everybody else. Nigeria is becoming a major killing ground of Christians by Muslims. Then just last week in Mali, not far away, Muslims killed some 50 non-Muslims because they were non-Muslims.

And now it is a terrifying possibility that indeed, Mexico will turn into a violent front on America's southern border where Iranian-backed Mexican throwbacks to the barbaric and blood-thirsty Aztecs and Maya are taking over. The savagery of these Mexicans in these drug cartel gangs can only be compared to the monstrous tortures and mutilations of their pre-Columbian ancestors in Central and South America.

And, by the way, working on old material having to do with the Barbary Period, I came across a letter from John Jay to Thomas Jefferson. At the moment, Jefferson was the US ambassador in to Paris and struggling in vain to liberate some 21 Americans in Algiers who were enslaved after being hijacked, and Jay was at the moment the secretary for foreign affairs in the still functioning (as it were) Continental Congress who in responding to a Jefferson missive called the Muslims who do these things “savages.” All civilized Americans called them barbarians and savages. John Jay went on to become the first Chief Justice of the US Supreme Court.

Unfortunately, people in the West have lost their moral compass and can no longer do that. It is politically incorrect to disrespect Islam and its practitioners. That is called Islamophobia, meaning, an irrational fear of Islam. Islamophobia in this sense is a cousin of saying ISIS was created by the Jews. It is a denial of reality. Fear of Islam is not a phobia; a phobia is a fear with no basis. Tell the Jews in Sderot that there is nothing wrong with the religion of the boys who shoot rockets into their bedrooms, do so in the name of Islam, and that they are Islamophobic.

The liberal, progressive fool will say, “But they are not representative of Islam. They are Islamists, extremists.”

This is more lying. If they were unrepresentative, they would publicly be rebuked by the highest authorities in Islam. But they never have and neither have the heads of state in 56 Muslim countries. Because Islam as a whole is rotten to the core.

* * (Musical Interlude) *

Yes, the menace of militant Islam, its aggression against humanity world, must not be underestimated. One of the historic moments in the life of Osama bin Ladin was the rout of the Soviets from Afghanistan after a decade of invasion in order to prop up the communist dictator there. For sure, the Russians in 1989 were routed thanks to American support of the Afghanis and other factors, but their defeat was proof that even that huge empire could be defeated by dedicated Muslims. And if the Russians were brought down, Believers believe they can destroy America, G-d forbid.

And of no help not coincidentally are the non-observant, post-religious and contemptuous of religion so-called liberal and leftist Jews who just sent a letter to Israel’s political parties insisting that Israel never annex what these deJudaized types call by its antisemitic name, the “West Bank.”

Ten of these antiJew Jew groups came together and call themselves The Progressive Israel Network. More verbal deceit; the Progressive Israel Network for whom Israel will make progress by retreating from Judea and Samaria and helping to install in the abandoned areas as the Muslim brotherhood. That is what happened when Israel retreated from the Gaza Strip and that, for sure, would be the fate of a Judea and Samaria evacuated by Israel.

Of course, these ten groups included J Street, the New Israel Fund and others. Maybe you saw the other day Bernie Sanders smiling and hugging Ilhan Omar of “It’s the Benjamins, baby” infamy. So if you ever had any doubts that Bernie Sanders is an antiJew, there it is, I presume somewhere on YouTube, you can see Bernie hugging this proven, shameless, stupid, criminal woman, this Muslim she-devil, and that should clinch the case that Bernie, despite his dishonest protestations that he can't be antisemite because his father's family was wiped out by the Nazis, this is more total dishonesty on his part. Jewish history does not lack for men like him, countless cases of Jews horribly persecuted by Christians and Muslims who then converted to these antiJew offshoots of Jewishness.

Also signing this letter was what JPost called a "rabbinic human rights group called T'ruah," which is made up of, I believe, sexually disordered men and women who call themselves rabbis. The very title of The Progressive Israel Network exposes the intellectual corruption of these nominally Jewish people. The implication is that Jewishness evolves and makes progress overtime, very like Darwin's monkeys who evolved into people over time, so that laws relevant thousands of years ago no longer apply. Judaism has progressed; its wisdom has changed and surpassed what is found the Five Books.

Progressive Judaism is like Reform and Conservative and Reconstructionist, all of them appending adjectives to the concept of Jewishness, adjectives called by grammarians modifiers; and for sure these schematics all share the belief they have the wisdom and divine authority to modify what the Creator of the Universe dictated to Moses.

What such schismatics reject for Jewishness is the concept of the classic, as in classical music, meaning long-lived, appealing to people from generation to generation. Jewishness is the invention of the Creator of Time and as such it is timeless.

All of these progressives think they know better than Moses and the Sages and wisest of experts in Jewish thinking over the millennia. These leftists and liberals who appealed to Israeli parties not to annex the "West Bank" are the enemies of the people in Zion and not coincidentally today's liberals and leftists, are enemies of the Western culture they live in, hate and exploit.
